

You are invited

February 3 & 4, 2011

You are invited to a free program on:

Connecting Scientists, Educators and Citizens to Address Environmental Challenges

Thursday, February 3rd

6:30-9:00 p.m.
Seattle Aquarium

Community Reception & Keynote

Reception: Connect with outreach organizations, scientists, volunteers, educators and citizens concerned with marine environmental issues.

Keynote: Dr. Lisa Graumlich, Dean, UW College of the Environment

*Light refreshments and cash bar provided.
Registration required.*

Hosted by COSEE-Ocean Learning
Communities and Washington Sea
Grant

Friday, February 4th

11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
UW Mary Gates Hall Commons

SoundCitizens Poster Session

Local high school students present SoundCitizens curriculum projects about science, community & action to protect Puget Sound.

*Raffle, coffee, tea and cookies provided.
Registration requested.*

Hosted by COSEE-Ocean Learning
Communities, SoundCitizen and OACIS
GK-12

To register for these events and for more information, please visit:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/RRZB6B8>

Program support from:

*COSEE-OLC
Washington Sea Grant
National Science Foundation
UW School of Oceanography
UW College of Education*

*Seattle Aquarium
UW College of the Environment
Ocean Inquiry Project
SoundCitizen
OACIS GK-12*